

Outstanding Young Educator Award!

Washington State Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development is proud to sponsor an awards program which salutes
a new generation's passion for excellence.

Washington State ASCD, in its ongoing search for quality leadership, will seek out, highlight, and celebrate the accomplishments of a young educator who achieves excellence in instructional leadership in teaching and learning.

The Washington State ASCD Outstanding Young Educator Award (OYEA!) is our way of recognizing an emerging educational leader and sharing his or her exemplary practices with the education community. This is an annual award.

Nominations close Friday, April 26, 2013

The Washington State ASCD Outstanding Young Educator Award winner will receive a check for $2,000, provided by a generous donation from the McGraw Hill Education Group, and will be honored during the Washington Educators' Conference luncheon at the Seattle Airport Doubletree Hotel on October 22nd. The winner will also receive Washington State ASCD membership.

Candidates for the WSASCD Outstanding Young Educator Award

The Washington State ASCD Outstanding Young Educator Award nominee is an education professional, 40 years of age or younger, who demonstrates exemplary commitment and exceptional contribution to the profession.

This person's creative and innovative accomplishments within the classroom, school, district, state, or region have had a significant impact on student performance and achievement over time and provide an ongoing model of excellence in encouraging all learners to succeed. The educator's body of work consistently proves leadership among colleagues.

Review the Criteria for Consideration provided to guide you in preparing your nomination.

Criteria for Consideration

IMPACT ON STUDENTS

Provide specific evidence that the nominee improves student achievement, improves the lives of students beyond academics, and uses best practice. For example, how does the nominee

- Determine student needs and interests and set appropriate goals and expectations?
- Use assessment to adapt instruction to learner needs?
- Design, deliver, evaluate, revise, or renew instructional units or programs?
- Actively engage students in their own learning and assessment?
- Acknowledge and handle learner differences in planning, delivering, or assessing instruction?
- Monitor and measure student academic performance? (Give specific quantitative data.)
- Analyze and use data to make instructional decisions?
- Succeed with students beyond academics?

CREATIVITY/ INNOVATION

Cite specific evidence that the nominee works in innovative and creative ways to support high-quality teaching and learning. For example, describe how the nominee

- Designs, develops, and implements a specific instructional unit or program.
- Integrates curriculum to help students see and understand "the big picture."
- Applies learning to real life and extends lessons beyond the classroom or school.
- Motivates, challenges, engages, and involves learners in nontraditional ways.
- Creates a creative and innovative learning environment.
- Acknowledges and works with multiple forms of intelligences and multiple student or constituent interests.
- Expands students' or constituents' thinking.
- Identifies and overcomes obstacles.
- Pursues an unusual or different idea to reach a particular individual or group.
- Reflects on his or her own practice to generate new ideas.

LEADERSHIP AND IMPACT IN THE SCHOOL OR DISTRICT

Cite specific evidence of the nominee's influence at the school or district level or another level. For example, how does the nominee

- Enlist and engage others in projects or programs?
- Build community and rapport among colleagues?
- Set the pace for change to happen and encourage others to embrace change?
- Promote professional development activities to improve teaching and learning?
- Establish and maintain a climate that encourages collaboration and collegiality?
- Acknowledge and work with all stakeholders in the education system?
- Act proactively rather than reactively to settle issues?
- Seek and pursue opportunities to exercise effective leadership?

CONTRIBUTION TO THE PROFESSION

Cite specific evidence that the nominee demonstrates exemplary commitment and contributions to the profession. For example, describe how the nominee

- Fosters an organizational culture of continuous learning.
- Exceeds the goals and expectations of his or her position or role.
- Prepares and supports new educators in all roles.
- Advocates for improvement in the profession.
- Shares his or her own learning and expertise to help others succeed and excel.
- Accepts challenges and difficult assignments, then finds and shares productive solutions.
- Exhibits interest in and acts on current issues in the education profession.
- Seeks opportunities to engage in professional growth activities, perhaps as part of a professional organization.
- Maintains a global focus and an eye on the future.
