

THE PRACTITIONER'S BEST FRIEND

Strategies for professional developers, trainers, consultants and workshop presenters to close presentations and reinforce learning

- How do you envision using something from this session in your classroom?
- Neighbor Nudge – Share one or two ideas you learned today.
- As a member of school team, how will learning today improve e your practice?
- Closing group activity based on practicing one of the items that has been taught, such as brainstorming potential classroom applications.
- Role play a demonstration
- Protocols for application handed out at the end
- Vocabulary cards – One word on each card – why is this word important?
- In groups, write a definition and pass the card t the next person who adds to the definition
- Pick 3 people back at your site to share 3 highlights or new learnings
- Presenter share good ideas for dissemination
- “Shapes” reflection:
  - Squares with my belief
  - 3 points to remember
  - Questions circling in your head
- Vocabulary word – list your definition of the word – does it change during the workshop
- Have people deal with an issue from different perspectives (see diagram)
